Front and Center

The new Olympia building in Dumbo was the setting for our glamorous cover shoot

Rising tall over Brooklyn, Olympia Dumbo offers 76 one- to five-bedroom residences with stunning views of the East River, New York harbor, and Manhattan skyline. Interiors were designed by Brooklyn-based Workstead in collaboration with Hill West Architects who crafted Olympia's sculptural exterior. Developed by Fortis Property Group, Olympia features over 38,000 square feet of unparalleled indoor and outdoor amenities including a garden lounge, game room, two-lane bowling alley, fitness center, spin studio, boxing gym, kid's playroom and playground, 60-foot indoor pool, 58-foot outdoor pool and hot tub, full-size tennis court and more. The fully serviced lobby (24-hour doorman and concierge, package room with refrigerated storage and bicycle storage) features a sculpture by artist Jacob Hashimoto and floor-to-ceiling window walls (onsite parking is available for rent or purchase). Sales and marketing are being managed by Douglas Elliman Development Marketing; Karen and Casey Heyman of The Heyman Team at Sotheby's International Realty; and Fredrik Eklund, John Gomes and Adam Widener of The Eklund Gomes Team at Douglas Elliman.
