

Tampa's Newest Luxury Tower Launches Sales from $800K; Forthcoming Olympia Dumbo Penthouse Sells for Record-Setting $17.5 Million

Forthcoming Olympia Dumbo Penthouse Set to Become Priciest Home in Neighborhood

A full-floor residence that's currently being constructed at Olympia Dumbo is in contract for $17.5 million, putting it on the path to become the priciest sale on record in Brooklyn's Dumbo.

The nearly 4,270-square-foot home, known as Penthouse A, will occupy the building's 33rd floor, offering direct elevator access, four bedrooms, three-and-a-half bathrooms, ceiling heights up to 13 feet, wide-plank light ash wood flooring, and a 500-square-foot private terrace that overlooks the East River and city skyline.

Developed by Fortis Property Group, with architecture by Hill West Architects and interiors by AD100 firm Workstead, Olympia Dumbo features 76 hand-crafted homes and more than 38,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor amenities that include indoor and outdoor pools, a two-lane bowling alley, and a juice bar. The building is slated to be completed this year.
